DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see pp. 5-8, filed 7/28/08, with respect to claims 3-5 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 3-5 has been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 3-6 are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
4. Claim 3 is allowable because the prior art of record does not teach an apparatus with both a disk-shaped storage medium and a control section with these features. The prior art of record teaches similar devices, wherein extra copies of digital audio data are not created during a transfer of information from a storage section to a disk-shaped storage medium, but does not teach or reasonably suggest an erasure state flag with these features.

Specifically, Sharp KK's disclosure is directed towards copy protection, wherein the digital audio data is not allowed to exist on two different mediums by blocking the eject disk function (§ 0033 and 0043). There is no mention of erasure state flag's, and therefore Sharp KK alone does not teach the features of claim 3. Other prior art of record does not teach or reasonably suggest these features.

Wells et al., US 5,544,119 A, teaches an erasure state flag in a solid state memory (i.e. EEPROM) (see abstract and see column 4, line 29 - column 5, line 41).

The erasure flags, as taught by Wells et al., are not directed towards copy protection, but are to ensure areas of a solid-state memory are correctly indicated as being empty. There is no motivation to combine Wells et al. with the other prior art of record, and no indication that one of ordinary skill in the art would contemplate using these features from solid-state memories in a disk-shaped storage medium.

5. Claims 4-6 are allowable because they depend on claim 3.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
